

About us

We are a new company who really do supply the whole office catering package. The menus are flexible and you can be as specific as you want with regards to choices of fillings, nibbles, drinks etc. We use a customer relationship database to keep everything in order and we will tailor your orders to exactly what you need or want.

We have a lot of experience specifically in office catering and understand the importance of excellent presentation and accuracy, high quality food in conveniently sized bite-size pieces and punctuality of service.

With our simple ordering and feedback system in place it can take all of the headache out of ordering, and re-ordering, especially if you deal with the catering for more than one group within your company or business.

Feel free to try us out. If you require regular catering you can either have a free sample or get your first order for half price (up to 15 heads). For larger orders (generally 50 heads and above) or very regular orders (4 buffets or 50+ heads a week) discounts are negotiable and contracts are available. If you require us to tender please contact us so we can do so.

Our menu offers a wide variety of popular flavours and can provide new and exciting catering over a long period of time. We cater to vegetarians, vegans, Halal requirements, nut allergies, wheat allergies and any other specific food requirement all separately prepared and contained upon delivery.
